An example of our local tour Venture into Pembrokeshire..

Depart 9:00 from Goodwick Harbour
Arrive 9:30 Castell Henllys – Guided Tour

Castell Henllys is the only Iron Age Village in Britain reconstructed on the exact site where our Celtic ancestors lived 2,000 years ago. Here you can walk in the footsteps of the Demetae tribe.

Depart 11:00 from Castell Henllys
Arrive 11:10 The Parish of Nevern

Highlights will include 'The Bleeding Yew' whos' seeping sap is blood red.

The Celtic Cross dates from the early 11th Century and is one of only 3 of its kind found in Pembrokeshire.

The St. Brynach Church dates from the 12th or 13th century and The Pilgrims' Cross is carved in the rock where pilgrims would have stopped here to pray. This was a popular route as two pilgrimages to St.Davids was said to equal one to Rome.

Depart 12:00 from The Parish of Nevern
Arrive 12:15 Pentre Ifan

One of Wales' most visited megalithic cromlechs, dating back some six thousand years. This fine burial chamber has an impressive 15 ton capstone, makes you wonder how this blue dolerite ever came to rest here!
